

31 Days of Wisdom- Pt 1

Through repetition and familiarity we grow into people who are becoming wise.

Go to the ant, you sluggard; consider its ways and be wise! 7 It has no commander, no overseer or ruler, 8 yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest. Proverb 6:6-8

We tend to give into hopelessness far too easily.

There is probably a lot less can't and a lot more won't in all of us than we are comfortable to admit.

We study God's word so that we will gain an eternal perspective.

Too often we think wisdom is about self-help, but any wisdom that terminates in self is not biblical wisdom, it is sentimentality.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, Proverb 1:7

We are called to not just know about God, we are called to experience Him.

Most people who reject God are ultimately rejecting the accountability that would obviously go with that reality.

The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, their deeds/ways are vile; Psalm 14:1, 53:1
