

Advent 4- With us, For us

We all feel the strain of brokenness knowing intuitively that something is just not right with the world.

John 4:13-14

When we are confronted with the reality of Jesus and we confess our “soul thirst” and look to Him, he reaches down from heaven and heals our soul and reminds us that we we matter.

Philippians 2:5-7

In order to be sympathetic to us, Jesus first had to experience everything as us.

Hebrews 2:14-18

Deuteronomy 7:7-8

Jesus came to identify with us, to experience what we experience, and to be with us.

We reject the free gift of grace thinking that we can just systematically work our way to God.

Matthew 22:37-40

Jesus will ask; Did you love me and was your love for me manifested in genuine love, concern and generosity for those around you?

Christmas is about the free gift of salvation to all people because what God started in a manger He finished on a cross.
