

His 22- Who are we when we Hurt?

The Church must always guard ourselves against losing our love and compassion for humanity or becoming indifferent to its needs.

Ephesians 4:12-13

Ephesians 4:14

There may not be anything that will destroy an immature faith like the tossing waves and wind of pain, suffering, and tragedy.

Psalm 139:7

Every single one of us is one tragedy away from finding out what our faith is truly built upon.

Matthew 10:16

If the world is not by its very nature broken, decaying and in rebellion to God, then there was no reason for Jesus to come to earth and die on a cross for our sins.

Romans 8:20-21

Pain, brokenness and tragedy in our world give us very clear evidence that something is powerfully wrong and we need intervention.

Romans 12:15

As a church, we need to be much more concerned with our response to the brokenness and tragedies in our world than the causes of them.
