

The Well Announcements for the Week of 7/29/13

August 4th

Next week (August 4th) we will have our worship service at Huntington University's Merillat Center for the Arts Auditorium. The service is at 11 AM.

Serve your church family: Take Them a Meal

Did you know that we have a special program in place to help encourage and serve our fellow Well community members?

It's called "Take Them a Meal." We have various events that come up in our community, including, but not limited to, births and illnesses. If you know of someone that could benefit from this service, please contact the church office at office@thewellathuntington.org.

We currently are using this service in providing meals for the Mitchell family as they have just welcomed home Lawson. We would invite you to go to this website: www.takethemameal.com and encourage them by signing up to take them a meal! To get to their specific sign up page put this information in:
Last name: mitchell - Password: lawson

First Impression

August 11th is our first service in the new building. We are asking everyone to enter the building that morning on the East side (Condit St. entrance). Please be very aware that we may have many new visitors and we need make everyone feel welcomed. If we do end up needing additional seating, please help us out by possibly giving up your seats to visitors. We will try to have an overflow area set up in the common area. We have a great opportunity show others God's love that morning, and that we truly are a relational church, that does love their neighbors.

We NEED volunteers to get the building ready! SATURDAY WORK DAY, 8/3/13

We still have many small chores (and a couple of big ones) that need finished before we can have our first service at the building. We are a people called to serve, and fortunately, we have many opportunities available for you right now. We aren't asking for long-term commitments. What we need is for you to give a couple of hours of your time to the church, so we have a facility that is ready for ministry. We still need help with people who are able to paint, clean, set up and work on getting the outside of the building and property ready for visitors. If you haven't taken the opportunity to invest into your church, now is the time. We will begin at 9 AM on Saturday and work until the last item is checked off of the list. We would love to have 30 people serve this day!

Deb Swihart will also be painting throughout this week, Mon Tues Thurs Fri, 6-8 PM. If are able to help during the week, contact her at (260) 358-7524.

Invitation Cards

With our first service at the new building a couple of weeks away we have created invitation cards for you to hand out to your friends and neighbors. We have a perfect opportunity for you to be able to share about your church with your neighbors. The time is now. Even if you write a name on the card and drop it at their door, you have planted a seed and begun a conversation that could change lives forever. The harvest is plenty! If you need a handful of cards, please send us an email at office@thewellathuntington.org.
